

Dr. Lonnie L. Howard

Office of the President
Lamar Institute of Technology
Telephone: (409) 880-8185
Email: llhoward@lit.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Career Summary:

U.S. Army, Business & Industry, and served twice as a College President/CEO reporting directly to a Board of Trustees and Chancellor. Held leadership positions at a Research University, Community College System, and Technical Colleges. Expertise in Academics, Workforce, and Student Services. Proven results ensuring students: 1) enroll in K-12 Dual Credit, 2) earn AA/AS/AAS degrees, 3) find high-paying jobs, 4) have BA/BS transfer, and 5) pursue MBA/MS programs.

Other Skills:

Resource Development (over $18.3M)
Board and College Governance
Budget/Finance/Operations
Strategic Planning

Education/Training:

Training; Strategic Business Management, Harvard University, Division of Continuing Education, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 2015.

Training; Emerging Leadership for Online Learning, Penn State University, the Sloan-C Institute, State College, Pennsylvania, 2009.

Ph.D., University of Texas at Austin, Educational Administration; dual specializations in both Community College Leadership Program (CCLP) and Sociology, 4.0 GPA, 2005.

Dissertation: “The New Vocationalism: Comparative Analysis of Workforce Program Compliance at Houston Community College System.” John E. Roueche (Chair), William ‘Bill’ Moore, Norvell Northcutt, Cynthia Salinas, and Charles Cook.

M.S., University of Houston, Occupational Technology, 3.98 GPA, 2002.

B.S., University of Houston, Occupational Technology and Industrial Studies, 2001.

A.G.S., Houston Community College System, General Studies (Liberal Arts related), 1995.

A.A.S., San Jacinto College District, Welding, 1993.

Career Progression:

Community Colleges

Vice President-Interim
Assoc. Vice President
Educational Consultant
Research Associate
Chair (Dept.)
Faculty
Instructor

University

Executive Director
Outreach Director
Guest Lecturer

Technical Colleges

President/CEO
President/CEO

Held Multiple Positions at Some Institutions