Law Enforcement Bicycle Association (LEBA)

Bike Instructor Training (6 days)

THE COST OF THIS COURSE IS $850.

Location: 802 East Lavaca, MPC

Description: The Instructor Course is the most demanding and rewarding course that LEBA offers. It is a 48+hour instructor development course that teaches the candidates every skill needed to train officers in police mountain biking. The courses are offered several times a year in different areas of the United States and Canada. LEBA has trained officers from all 50 states as well as Canada, Puerto Rico, and other parts of the world. Our candidates are taught the "LEBA Way" so that they, in turn, can consistently teach others the skills and techniques that set LEBA apart from all other organizations.

Instructor Course Requirements:

In order to attend an Instructor Course, you must be a sworn LEO or Military and must have successfully completed a Basic Course "A" or "B" (or its equivalent) and be recommended by your instructor. LEBA will also accept equivalent training from IPMBA or other organizations, subject to review by our Executive Board. At LEBA, we hold our instructors to the highest standards, and we expect nothing less than the highest degree of professionalism from them.
