The Special Populations Office is located in the Eagles' Nest Room 129 and helps foster a supportive and inclusive educational environment by maintaining partnerships with faculty and staff, as well as promoting awareness among all members of the Lamar Institute of Technology community. LIT utilizes an early alert system called Starfish. Throughout the semester, you may receive emails from Starfish regarding your course grades, attendance, or academic performance. Faculty members record student attendance, raise flags and kudos to express concern or give praise, and you can make an appointment with faculty and staff all through the Starfish home page. You can also login to Blackboard or MyLIT and click on the Starfish link to view academic alerts and detailed information. It is the responsibility of the student to pay attention to these emails and information in Starfish and consider taking the recommended actions. Starfish is used to help you be a successful student at LIT.

ADDITIONAL COURSE POLICIES/INFORMATION

Late Work Policy – due to the nature of my course being a dual credit class where high school athletics and activities are constantly happening, my late policy is as follows. The due date is the due date (unless you have an accommodation on file with Lamar Institute of technology). Once the due date expires, late work submitted will receive 5% taken off from its maximum cap for every 24-hour period of time it is late. If you have a excused reason for work being turned in late, you need to email me BEFORE THE DUE DATE. Emailing me after the due date has expired to tell me why you could not submit it on time will not be considered. The due date means the last moment you can submit it. Work can ALWAYS be turned in early. Budget your time accordingly.

Instructor Response Time – With this being a dual credit class, my response time is fairly consistent. If you email me before 6pm, I will try and respond that evening. Emails sent to me after 6pm or on the weekends might take a day or two to be responded to.
