ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE STATEMENT

Lamar Institute of Technology (LIT) recognizes the recent advances in Artificial Intelligence (AI), such as ChatGPT, have changed the landscape of many career disciplines and will impact many students in and out of the classroom. To prepare students for their selected careers, LIT desires to guide students in the ethical use of these technologies and incorporate AI into classroom instruction and assignments appropriately. Appropriate use of these technologies is at the discretion of the instructor. Students are reminded that all submitted work must be their own original work unless otherwise specified. Students should contact their instructor with any questions as to the acceptable use of AI/ChatGPT in their courses

LIT utilizes an early alert system called Starfish. Throughout the semester, you may receive emails from Starfish regarding your course grades, attendance, or academic performance. ADDITIONAL COURSE POLICIES/INFORMATION:

Communication is important- students should contact the instructor for missed attendance or assignments.

Class Etiquette Policy

Please, always be respectful! Be professional when interacting with me and other students. This includes being courteous when sending emails. There may be opportunities where we will discuss current events which connect to the course. I will NOT tolerate being disrespectful to each other. We are here to learn, not judge or show intolerance. We will respect each other's opinions, even if we disagree. Please refrain from making race, gender, religious, or sex-based discriminatory or harassing comments.

The instructor has full discretion when deciding punishment if disruptive and/or intolerant behavior occurs. This can range from a verbal warning to an administrative drop. A student who has been deemed "disruptive" will be reported to the department chair. Any student who displays extreme behavior or makes threatening comments will immediately be reported to the administration.

Email Communication Policy

Effective and professional communication is essential in this course. Please follow these guidelines when contacting me via email:

Response Time:

- I will respond to emails within 1 business day (Monday–Friday) for messages sent during the weekday.
- Emails received over the weekend may take up to 2 business days to receive a response.
- Emails sent over the holidays may take up to the next business day to receive a response. Students should refer to the LIT Academic Calendar for clarification on holiday dates.
- If you do not receive a response within these time frames, feel free to send a polite follow-up.

Before escalating concerns or contacting other parties, such as my supervisor, please ensure that this policy has been reviewed and the outlined time frames have passed.

Email Requirements:

- Use your institutional email account to contact me. Due to FERPA regulations, I will not respond to emails sent from personal accounts (e.g., Gmail, Yahoo).
- Include the following in your email for clarity:
 - o A clear subject line (ex., "Question about Exam").
 - o Your full name and course information (e.g., "HIST 1301, Section A").

Emails that do not follow proper communication guidelines will receive a delayed response, as I will need additional time to identify the student and locate the relevant course details.

Additional Notes:

- Review the syllabus or class announcements before e-mailing to ensure your question hasn't already been addressed.
- For urgent matters, consider speaking with me during my office hours or setting an appointment.

By following these guidelines, we can ensure clear and efficient communication

Late Work-

Timely submission of assignments is essential for your success in this course. To ensure fairness and maintain academic standards, late work will not be accepted except in cases of documented emergencies or extenuating circumstances approved by the instructor.

Key Points:

- Assignments must be submitted by the stated deadline in the syllabus or as announced in class/Blackboard.
- Late submissions, even by a few minutes, will not be graded unless prior arrangements have been made or an emergency has been communicated and documented.
- Technical difficulties (ex., computer crashes, internet issues) are not considered valid reasons for late work. It is your responsibility to plan accordingly and allow extra time for unforeseen issues.

Exceptions:

In rare cases, such as illness or family emergencies, late work may be accepted at the instructor's discretion. Such exceptions require:

1. Prompt communication with the instructor before or immediately after the missed deadline.
2. Appropriate documentation (e.g., doctor's note or other evidence).

This policy encourages time management and mirrors real-world deadlines. If you have concerns about meeting a deadline, please communicate with the instructor in advance.

Grading Timeline for Late Work:

Please note that late submissions may not be graded with the same priority as on-time work. If you submit an assignment late, expect a delay in receiving your grade and feedback.

Avoiding Late Submissions:

- Manage your time effectively and plan ahead for due dates.
- Communicate with the instructor before the deadline if you anticipate any issues.
- Submit work early whenever possible to account for potential technical difficulties.

Extra Credit-

Extra credit will be offered throughout the semester in diverse forms. It is up to the instructor to determine the amount of extra credit given. Students will be informed beforehand in the form of Blackboard announcements. Extra credit points will count toward lowest graded assignments, NOT towards assignments that have not been completed or that have a ZERO. Extra credit is optional and up to the instructor's discretion.

1. QUIZZES: Students will take quizzes online. There are two types of quizzes: primary source reading quizzes and lecture review quizzes. Quizzes are worth 100 points each.

- Primary source reading quizzes: These quizzes are based on the information the student reads from the primary source readings, as scheduled.
- Lecture review quizzes: These quizzes are to test the student's knowledge over lecture material and serve as a review for the class.
- Students that miss assignments (like quizzes) cannot make up the assignment unless the student had a documented sickness or a documented related absence. The student must receive permission from the instructor to make up for a missed assignment.
- Any student caught cheating on a quiz will receive a zero for that quiz. For online classes, cheating includes using information found online, like Wikipedia or other similar sites. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE QUIZZES. All information should be found in the lectures. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites. Do NOT use Artificial Intelligence (AI) (Ex. ChatGPT).

2. EXAMS: study material for the exams will come primarily from the lectures. Exams are worth 100 points total.

- Students that miss a test are only allowed to make up the exam if the student has an unavoidable emergency. The student must contact the instructor as soon as possible to schedule a make-up exam.
- Any student caught cheating on an exam will receive a zero on that exam. Cheating on an exam includes using sources like Wikipedia to answer questions. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE EXAM. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites. Do NOT use Artificial Intelligence (AI) (Ex. ChatGPT).

3. JOURNAL ENTRIES: Journal Entries, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own reflection and analysis of that chapter's lecture and information given regarding the historical topic covered. Students are expected to write at least 100 words per entry and include specific information, evidence from the lecture given. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. This includes the use of outside online information, and the use of AI (Ex. ChatGPT).

4. DISCUSSION POSTS: Discussion post, as scheduled, should be in response to the instructor's prompt for that week's lecture. Students shall use their own analysis and reflection to respond to these prompts. Additionally, students also need to include specific information/evidence from the covered lecture. Entries should be at least 100 words. As part of the full discussion post grade, students should also respond to at least 2 other classmates in a courteous manner, with a response of at least 50 words to each classmate. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. This includes the use of outside online information, and the use of AI (Ex. ChatGPT).

5. POSTERS: Posters, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own creativity. A one-page poster should be used to demonstrate originality and connection to the information given regarding the historical topic covered. An image reverse search will be used to verify originality if needed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment.

6. ROUGH DRAFT ASSIGNMENT & FINAL ASSIGNMENT: Students will turn in their Rough Draft assignment and their final submission for the final assignment to Blackboard on the due date scheduled (or earlier). Students are required to check the "SafeAssign" box so that their assignment is checked for plagiarism through the online software.

There is a list of approved films in the "Cultural Artifact" assignment folder for the class. The student gets to pick ONE film out of the suggested film list. The student is responsible for researching their movie option prior to selection. Ex. Rating, Content, Etc. If a student has a film they would like to pick, that is not on the approved list, it must be first approved by the instructor.

There are two portions to this assignment: Rough Draft Assignment and Final Submission of the Assignment. The Rough Draft assignment is not a typical rough draft of your final paper. It is a question-and-answer assignment, the form can be found on Blackboard.

Final Submission Options: Students will choose a historical movie and opt for ONE of the following formats:

- Recorded Presentation: A visual analysis comprising movie clips/images, personal analysis, evidence, lasting 10 minutes or more.

OR

- Written Analysis: A comprehensive 3-page essay interpreting the historical accuracy and directorial choices.

Students shall choose the option they are the most comfortable with. Additional information and requirements can be found in the assignment folder on Blackboard.

a. The instructor will NOT accept late submissions. For extensions, the instructor should be contacted immediately. Students will receive a zero for the assignment if they do not turn in their assignments. Students should keep in mind that the Rough Draft and Final Assignment are core assignments, which means they are mandatory.

b. Plagiarism will NOT be tolerated. All assignments are checked for plagiarism, which includes not properly citing quote, slightly changing the words of sentences that are not the intellectual property of the student, copying someone's previous work or improperly using sources from the internet. This includes the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Ex. ChatGPT. If the student plagiarizes on the Final assignment, the student will receive a ZERO for the assignment. The online software will show some plagiarism on the assignment, especially if the student uses quotes from the movie. The student needs to make sure they are properly citing the quote with the appropriate information and quotation marks. Students should limit the use of citations. NO block quotations will be allowed, each citation should typically be of 20 words or less.

No work will be accepted past May 7th, 2024.
