You can also login to Blackboard or MyLIT and click on the Starfish link to view academic alerts and detailed information. It is the responsibility of the student to pay attention to these emails and information in Starfish and consider taking the recommended actions. Starfish is used to help you be a successful student at LIT.

ADDITIONAL COURSE POLICIES/INFORMATION

- Grades
 - Assignment(s) will be due Sunday at midnight. All submitted assignments will be graded by no later than Friday at 2:00.
 - The instructor has set up your Blackboard course to automatically designate a zero on students' assignments submitted after the due date, however that does not mean that you cannot submit assignments late. Once the instructor grades the late assignment, that grade will replace the zero. May 6 will be the last day of the semester to submit late assignments.
 - Review any comments that the instructor makes on your graded assignment. If points are deducted, the instructor will give recommendations on how to improve next time. If the grade on the submitted assignment is too low, the instructor may also invite the student to revise his/her assignment to receive a higher grade.
- Communication
 - Please feel free to address me as Ms. Carolyn, Ms. Heflin or Instructor Heflin. I often sign off on my messages informally as Carolyn.
 - Instructor answers Blackboard messages or emails within 24 hours. The exception is weekends or holidays, so please contact instructor before Friday 2:00 if you want a timely response before the weekend.
 - Be sure to read any course announcements carefully. That information is usually an important reminder to everyone in the course.
 - Please contact me if you need any help whatsoever. You will not be “bothering” me! It is my job to support you!
