ATTENDANCE POLICY

Online Students must log in to Blackboard at least three times a week to ensure that they are receiving all the instructor's communication and that they are completing assignments on time. If the instructor notices a student has not signed on to Blackboard in at least a week, the instructor will create a Starfish report about the student's attendance.

Communication is important- students should contact the instructor for missed attendance or assignments.

Late Work-
Late submissions will NOT be accepted, unless otherwise approved by the instructor. In case of an emergency or excused reason, please contact the instructor.

DROP POLICY

If you wish to drop a course, you are responsible for initiating and completing the drop process by the specified drop date as listed on the Academic Calendar. If you stop coming to class and fail to drop the course, you will earn an "F" in the course.

STUDENT EXPECTED TIME REQUIREMENT

For every hour in class (or unit of credit), students should expect to spend at least two to three hours per week studying and completing assignments. For a 3-credit-hour class, students should prepare to allocate approximately six to nine hours per week outside of class in a 16-week session OR approximately twelve to eighteen hours in an 8-week session. Online/Hybrid students should expect to spend at least as much time in this course as in the traditional, face-to-face class.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
Students found to be committing academic dishonesty (cheating, plagiarism, or collusion) may receive disciplinary action. Students need to familiarize themselves with the institution's Academic Dishonesty Policy available in the Student Catalog & Handbook at http://catalog.lit.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=80#academic-dishonesty.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS
The latest technical requirements, including hardware, compatible browsers, operating systems, etc. can be online at https://lit.edu/online-learning/online-learning-minimum-computer-requirements. A functional broadband internet connection, such as DSL, cable, or Wi-Fi is necessary to maximize the use of online technology and resources.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT
The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 are federal anti-discrimination statutes that provide comprehensive civil rights for persons with disabilities. LIT provides reasonable accommodations as defined in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, to students with a diagnosed disability. The Special Populations Office is located in the Eagles' Nest Room 129 and helps foster a supportive and inclusive educational environment by maintaining partnerships with faculty and staff, as well as promoting awareness among all members of the Lamar Institute of Technology community. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Special Populations Coordinator at (409)-951-5708 or email specialpopulations@lit.edu. You may also visit the online resource at Special Populations - Lamar Institute of Technology (lit.edu).

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT STATEMENT
It is the responsibility of all registered Lamar Institute of Technology students to access, read, understand, and abide by all published policies, regulations, and procedures listed in the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook. The LIT Catalog and Student Handbook may be accessed at www.lit.edu. Please note that the online version of the LIT Catalog and Student Handbook supersedes all other versions of the same document.

STARFISH
LIT utilizes an early alert system called Starfish. Throughout the semester, you may receive emails from Starfish regarding your course grades, attendance, or academic performance. Faculty members record student attendance, raise flags and kudos to express concern or give praise, and you can make an appointment with faculty and staff all through the Starfish home page. You can also login to Blackboard or MyLIT and click on the Starfish link to view academic alerts and detailed information. It is the responsibility of the student to pay attention to these emails and information in Starfish and consider taking the recommended actions. Starfish is used to help you be a successful student at LIT.

ADDITIONAL COURSE POLICIES/INFORMATION

1. QUIZZES: Students will take quizzes online. There are two types of quizzes: primary source reading quizzes and lecture review quizzes. Quizzes are worth 100 points each.

> a. Primary source reading quizzes: These quizzes are based on the information the student reads from the primary source readings, as scheduled.
> b. Lecture review quizzes: These quizzes are to test the student's knowledge over lecture material and serve as a review for the class.
> c. Students that miss assignments (like quizzes) cannot make up the assignment unless the student had a documented sickness or a documented related absence. The student must receive permission from the instructor to makeup a missed assignment.
> d. Any student caught cheating on a quiz will receive a zero for that quiz. For online classes, cheating includes using information found online, like Wikipedia or other similar sites. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE QUIZZES. All information should be found in the lectures. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites. Do NOT use Artificial Intelligence (AI) Ex. ChatGPT).

2. EXAMS: study material for the exams will come primarily from the lectures, as well as the material that students read in the primary source documents. Exams are worth 100 points total.

> a. Students that miss a test are only allowed to make up the exam if the student has an unavoidable emergency. The student must contact the instructor as soon as possible to schedule a make-up exam.
> b. Any student caught cheating on an exam will receive a zero on that exam. Cheating on an exam includes using sources like Wikipedia to answer questions. DO NOT USE WIKIPEDIA TO STUDY FOR THE EXAM. Do NOT Copy and Paste responses from websites. Do NOT use Artificial Intelligence (AI) (Ex. ChatGPT).

3. JOURNAL ENTRIES: Journal Entries, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own reflection and analysis of that chapter's lecture and information given regarding the historical topic covered. Students are expected to write at least 100 words per entry and include specific information, evidence from the lecture given. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. This includes the use of outside online information, and the use of AI (Ex. ChatGPT).

4.DISCUSSION POSTS: Discussion post, as scheduled, should be in response to the instructor's prompt for that week's lecture. Students shall use their own analysis, reflection to respond to these prompts. Additionally, students also need to include specific information/evidence from the covered lecture. Entries should be at least 100 words. As part of the full discussion post grade, students should also respond to at least 2 other classmates in a courteous manner, with a response of at least 50 words to each classmate. Long quotations and/or block quotations are NOT allowed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment. This includes the use of outside online information, and the use of AI (Ex. ChatGPT).

5. POSTERS: Posters, as scheduled, shall consist of a student's own creativity. A one-page poster should be used to demonstrate originality and connection to the information given regarding the historical topic covered. An image reverse search will be used to verify originality if needed. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in a low grade or zero for the assignment.

6. ROUGH DRAFT ASSIGNMENT & FINAL ASSIGNMENT: Students will turn in their Prewriting assignment and their final submission for the final assignment to Blackboard on the due date scheduled (or earlier). Students are required to check the "SafeAssign" box so that their assignment is checked for plagiarism through the online software.

There is a list of approved films in the "Cultural Artifact" assignment folder for the class. The student gets to pick ONE film out of the suggested film list. The student is responsible for researching their movie option prior to selection. Ex. Rating, Content, Etc. If a student has a film, they would like to pick that is not on the approved list, it must be first approved by the instructor.

There are two portions to this assignment: Rough Draft Assignment and Final Submission of the Assignment. The Rough Draft assignment is not a typical rough draft of your final paper. It is a question-and-answer assignment, the form can be found on Blackboard.

Final Submission Options: Students will choose a historical movie and opt for ONE of the following formats:

- Recorded Presentation: A visual analysis comprising movie clips/images, personal analysis, evidence, lasting 10 minutes or more.

OR

- Written Analysis: A comprehensive 3-page essay interpreting the historical accuracy and directorial choices.

Students shall choose the option they are the most comfortable with. Additional information and requirements can be found in the assignment folder on Blackboard.

a. The instructor will NOT accept late submissions. For extensions, instructor should be contacted immediately. Students will receive a zero for the assignment if they do not turn in their assignments. Students should keep in mind that the Rough Draft and Final Assignment are core assignments, which means they are mandatory.

b. Plagiarism will NOT be tolerated. All assignments are checked for plagiarism, which includes not properly citing quote, slightly changing the words of sentences that are not the intellectual property of the student, copying someone's previous work or improperly using sources from the internet. The student should not use ANY internet sources to help them with this assignment (unless the student needs specific information about the movie). This includes the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Ex. ChatGPT. If the student plagiarizes on the Final assignment, the student will receive a ZERO for the assignment. The online software will show some plagiarism on the assignment, especially if the student uses quotes from the movie. The student needs to make sure they are properly citing the quote with the appropriate information and quotation marks. Students should limit the use of citations. NO block quotations will be allowed, each citation should typically be of 20 words or less.

c. The student must complete the final assignment to pass the course. If a student completes all other work, yet does not turn in the book assignment, the student will receive an "F" in the course.

NO work will be accepted past August 16th, 2024.
