Have you requested a dependency override previously (Circle one)? Yes or No

If you answer yes, please update your written statement and complete steps 3 through 6.

If you answer no, please complete steps 1 through 6.

1. A personal statement of situation explaining the reason for your request for dependency override.

The letter should provide as much detail as possible, describing your separation from your biological parents. You are required to include the following documentation.

- The whereabouts of your biological parents and their current living arrangements. Include the last contact you had with your biological parents and the frequency of contact with them over the past year(s).
- Why you cannot provide parental information on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
- Your living arrangements over the past year(s); with whom you have lived with and who provided financial support for you.
- Birth Certificate
- Death Certificate (if one of your parents is deceased)

2. Letters from two individuals who can attest to your situation. Their letters should be one to two pages and provide as much detail as possible describing your separation from your parents. Letters should be notarized!

- The first letter should be from a professional individual not related to the student – counselor, social worker, teacher, police, etc. Please submit on letterhead.
- The second letter should be from either a professional or non-professional who is very familiar with your situation.
- Each letter must include the individual's name, title or position, address, phone number and must be signed.
- The individuals cannot be related to each other and must reside at separate addresses. MUST BE TYPED!

3. A completed and signed electronic FAFSA – leave parent section blank.

4. Federal Income Tax Return Information

- Import Tax Return Information into the student FAFSA using IRS Data Retrieval Tool without making changes to the imported information, or
- Provide tax return or IRS Tax Transcript (request available at www.irs.gov) of the tax year used on the current FAFSA
- All supporting W2's/1099's of the tax year used on the current FAFSA
- For students who did not file a tax return, a verification of non-filing is required from the IRS.
This can be obtained online, by making an appointment with the IRS by calling 844-545-5640 or by filing a 4506-T form with the IRS.

5. Please complete the following:
