

POLICY LIT.2.03 SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

SCOPE: Faculty, Staff, and Students

Lamar Institute of Technology is committed to creating and maintaining an educational community in which each individual is respected, appreciated, and valued. Tolerance, openness, and respect are key in providing every member of the community with basic human dignity free from all forms of sexual misconduct. Any report of behavior that threatens our institutional values and breaches the Texas State University System (TSUS) Sexual Misconduct Policy shall be promptly investigated and remediated in accordance with principles of law, fairness, and equity to all Parties involved.

1. Lamar Institute of Technology adopts and adheres to the TSUS Sexual Misconduct Policy.

1.1. The TSUS Sexual Misconduct Policy can be found in Appendix A-6 of the TSUS Rules and Regulations (tsus.edu/about-tsus/policies.html)

2. Questions or complaints involving the Sexual Misconduct Policy should be directed to:

Harold R. Hillyard
Title IX Coordinator
409.880.8163
TitleIXOffice@lit.edu

Related Procedures:

Relevant Forms/Documents:

Relevant TSUS Policies/Forms/Documents: TSUS Rules and Regulations

Relevant Statutes: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

Relevant SACSCOC Standards:

Document History:

Adopted:

Reviewed:

Revised: March 2026, July 2026